A black and white historical photograph showing two young children, a boy and a girl, standing on a pier. The boy is wearing a cap and a dark coat, holding a small flag or piece of cloth. The girl is wearing a light-colored headscarf and a dark coat. In the background, there are other people and what appears to be a boat or a pier structure. The image is overlaid with several graphic elements: a large blue diagonal swoosh on the left; the Europeana logo in the top left corner of the image area; a yellow banner at the bottom right with the text '2018 EUROPEAN YEAR OF CULTURAL HERITAGE #EuropeForCulture'; and a white text box in the bottom left with event details. In the top right corner of the image area, there is a logo for the 'HOUSE OF EUROPEAN HISTORY' which is a project of the European Parliament.

Share your personal migration story!

Europeana and the House of European History are inviting communities from Brussels to share their personal migration stories - and objects such as pictures, diaries, videos and letters - to the collection. Young and old are invited to bring along one or more objects that are part of their and their family's migration story and as many details about them as possible.

These objects and stories are part of Europe's rich and shared history of migration, which can now be recorded for the future, and made freely available for anyone to discover and use for education, research, inspiration and pleasure.

Partagez votre propre histoire de migration!

Europeana et la Maison de l'histoire européenne invitent les habitants de Bruxelles à partager leurs histoires personnelles de migration - et des objets tels que des images, des journaux intimes, des vidéos et des lettres. Jeunes et moins jeunes sont invités à apporter et à décrire un ou plusieurs objets qui parlent de leur histoire de migration et de celle de leur famille.

Ces objets et histoires, les vôtres, font partie de la riche histoire partagée de l'Europe, et peuvent désormais être recueillis et conservés pour le futur.

En partageant votre propre histoire de migration, vous permettez à tous de la découvrir et de l'utiliser pour enseigner, étudier, ou s'en inspirer.

Deel uw persoonlijke migratieverhaal!

Europeana en het Huis van de Europese geschiedenis nodigen gemeenschappen uit Brussel uit om hun persoonlijke migratieverhalen - en objecten zoals foto's, dagboeken, video's en brieven - te delen met de collectie. Jong en oud worden uitgenodigd om een of meer voorwerpen mee te brengen die deel uitmaken van het migratieverhaal van hun familie en van zoveel mogelijk informatie over hen.

Deze objecten en verhalen maken deel uit van de rijke en gedeelde migratiegeschiedenis van Europa, die nu voor de toekomst kan worden vastgelegd en vrij beschikbaar is voor iedereen om te ontdekken en te gebruiken voor onderwijs, onderzoek, inspiratie en plezier.

For the love of libraries - from Romania to the Netherlands

"These are library cards. Some from my university years in my home country of Romania and some from libraries I joined during my studies abroad - Norway, Estonia, Italy, and the Netherlands.

The time I spent in these libraries helped develop my passion for books and took me to places I never imagined. They fuelled my desire to learn about the world and to enjoy both its challenges and its beauty."

Pour l'amour des bibliothèques - de Roumanie aux Pays-Bas

Ce sont des cartes de bibliothèques. Certaines datent de mes années universitaires dans mon pays d'origine, la Roumanie, d'autres proviennent de bibliothèques dans lesquelles je me suis inscrite pendant mes études à l'étranger : Norvège, Estonie, Italie, et les Pays-Bas.

Le temps que j'ai passé dans ces bibliothèques a contribué à développer ma passion pour les livres et m'a transportée dans des endroits que j'avais jamais imaginés. Les bibliothèques ont nourri ma curiosité d'apprendre et d'apprécier la richesse et les défis de notre monde.

Adina's verhaal
Bibliotheekliefde - van Roe naar Nederland

"Dit zijn bibliotheekkaarten. Sommige van mijn studententijd in mijn thuisland Roemenië, en anderen verzamelde tijdens mijn studie in het buitenland: Noorwegen, Estland, Italië, en Nederland.

De uren die ik in deze bibliotheken doorgebracht heb hebben mij een passie voor boeken gegeven en hebben mij de wereld en andere culturen laten zien. Ze hebben mij vervoerd naar vele onderstaande plekken. Ze stoken verlangen om meer te leren over de wereld, en om zowel haar uitdagende schoonheid te apprechieren.

Don't forget that we'll be waiting for your migration stories at the House of European History from Thursday to Saturday.

In the meantime, take a look at our online exhibition telling the stories of those who moved from Europe to America: <http://bit.ly/2DlokUJ>

Leaving Europe: A New Life in America

America is well-known as a land of immigrants; a notion that is essential to its identity. European migration to America may be dated from 1620 when 100 Pilgrims from England set out on the difficult four-month journey across the Atlantic Ocean.....
